

English

Practice Questions

VCE 'Context'

About the questions

Individual, exam-style questions

The questions contained in this booklet match the style of questions that are typically asked in exams. This booklet is not however, a practice exam. Elevate's research with top students identified that top students do more practice questions than anyone else. They begin the process of testing their knowledge early in the year.

Therefore, we have provided exam-format questions that are sorted by topic so that you can answer them as you learn the information, rather than waiting until the very end of the year to complete exams.

Comments, questions?

Let us know if you need any further advice by visiting www.elevateeducation.com. You can comment on any of our material, or head to the FAQ section and ask us a question. Also, you can find us on social media so you can stay up to date on any brand new tips we release throughout the year.

Other information

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information expressed in this booklet, but no warranty or fitness is implied. If you'd like to provide any feedback on this booklet, let us know at admin@elevateeducation.com.

Finally, except as provided by the Copyright act 1968, no part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted by any means without prior written consent of the publisher.

Whose reality?

1. It is impossible to understand someone else's reality.
2. Your version of reality will never be the same as someone else's.
3. Is it possible to prove that we are all living the same reality?
4. Can anyone's reality be proven to be more correct than someone else's?
5. People will always have differing realities, and thus respond differently to their experiences. Is this true?
6. In a way, we all make our own realities.
7. Every reality is open to some interpretation.
8. Everyone's reality is shaped by the people around them.

Encountering conflict

1. No matter the situation, conflict will always lead to combat
2. Conflict marks the beginning of consciousness
3. All conflicts can be solved, no matter the situation.
4. Internal conflict shows growth.
5. Conflict is what truly makes us human.
6. External conflict is often a reflection of internal turmoil.
7. Humans are conditioned to desire and seek out conflict.

Identity and Belonging

1. Cultural identity defines us
2. Through observing others, we more fully understand our own identity.
3. Is identity static, or does it continue to evolve with time?
4. Is it easier to belong when surrounded by like-minded people?
5. Can our identity truly be defined?

6. Why is it important that we belong?
7. How does identity shape us, and how do we shape identity?

The Imaginative Landscape

1. Whether a landscape is real or imagined, it still shapes our world.
2. Impossibilities are only possible through imagination.
3. Landscapes are far from the static images we see in paintings. We can change them with our mind.
4. People strive to create a landscape more suitable to their desires.
5. Self-turmoil leads to conflict with the landscape.
6. Our emotions are affected by the landscape around us.